Dr. Christopher Jo Appointed to SecureCare Committee

MCA is pleased to announce Dr. Christopher Jo has been appointed by SecureCare to serve on their Clinical Review Committee as a representative for the state of Minnesota. Each quarter, the committee meets to review items related to the clinical review process of SecureCare. As a member of the committee, Dr. Jo will:

- Provide oversight to the clinical review process of SecureCare.
- Bring any questions or concerns from Minnesota providers.
- Offer potential improvements on SecureCare's clinical review process.

Dr. Jo's participation on the committee will improve communication and transparency while fostering a deeper, more collaborative relationship between SecureCare, the MCA and providers.

Congratulations, Dr. Jo!

Dr. Dan Conway - Metro West
Dr. Gregory Denver - North East
Dr. Brooks Laber - Metro West
Dr. Kenneth Odegaard - Metro West
Dr. Alyssa Ohman - Central

Dr. Emily White - South West
Dr. Christopher Wood - South East

HHS Intervenes in Change Healthcare IT Outage Attack

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) has issued guidance in relation to the February cybersecurity incident involving Change Healthcare, a unit of UnitedHealth Group (UHG). The department is directing regional Medicare contractors to expedite requests for providers to switch data and claims processors, as well as process requests for accelerated payments. Read more here. In addition, CMS will offer emergency funding to Medicare providers affected by the Change Healthcare hack. The emergency funds represent upfront payments made to providers and suppliers based on their expected future claims. Click here to see if you're eligible for advanced payments.
